THE BUMPER CROP

IS BEING HANDLED RAPIDLY

Quality and Quantity Passing Through Winnipeg Surpasses all Previous Records

Winnipeg, Nov. 2.—For the first two months of the present crop year 19,294 cars of wheat or 20,258,000 bushels have been inspected at Winnipeg compared with 15,761 cars and 11,302,000 in the corresponding period a year ago. Both as regards quality and quantity this year's receipts surpass all previous years. The total number of cars of contract grades was 16,920 being 80 per cent of the wheat inspected here while one hard and one northern constitute 12,307 cars or 75 per cent of the receipts. The arrivals graded as follows: One hard 700 cars, one northern 11,807 cars, two northern 4,147 cars, three northern 466, other other grades 2,374.

COMBINED FLEETS

Annapolis, Nov. 2.—Prince Louis of Battenburg bearer of a special message from King Edward to President Roosevelt has been received with great honors by the Governor of Manitoba, the American Admiral. The joint fleets of English and American warships are lying in the Annapolis roads forming the most brilliant naval spectacle ever seen in these waters.

NEW PRESBYTERIAN MISSION

On Queen's avenue at the corner of Sutherland street, stands the new Presbyterian mission, now nearly completed, and which, it is expected, will be ready for opening about the 10th of December. The building is of frame, with brick and stone foundation, and will have a seating capacity of about 400. The outside work is finished, also the electric wiring. Lathing inside is now being done and the interior will be finished in wood fibre plaster. The platform is in the north end of the building, and the entrance to the church beneath the tower at the southeast corner, and facing both streets. Altogether the edifice will be a splendid addition to the increasing number of Edmonton's fine churches. A choir for the church has been organized, with Mr. Shanks as leader and Mrs. Robertson as organist, and an organ will shortly be purchased. Rev. Mr. Beekle, who has been occupying the pulpit of Rev. Dr. McQueen's church during his absence, will be the pastor.

STRATHCONA NEWS

Interesting Items from Edmonton's Sister Town

Strathcona, Nov. 1.—Mr. McLagan's new house, which is situated on the Edmonton road, is being completed. Dietz & Main's men are finishing the wood work inside, while Ross Bros. of Edmonton, have men installing furnaces, bath, metallic curtains and hot and cold water attachments. The house is 28 x 30 feet, two stories and attic, having full size basement and ten rooms, including bath room and attic. Fine views of the river and adjacent towns can be had from the balcony and windows. The house is finished in B. C. fir and is up-to-date and modern in every particular.

Mr. McCullough of Toronto, has just finished painting his large house near the Baptist church, town.

Mr. McRae of Innisfail is in town for the winter. He reports crops good in his neighborhood, and threshing mostly done, barley and oats being chiefly grown, the former averaging 35 to 40 bushels and oats about 50 bushels to the acre. Mr. McRae is one of the town hockey players.

Mr. Rinehart, who has been for some time on the pay roll of the town, leaves in the morning for Wainwright, where he expects to work for the winter, and leave in the spring with a party of friends for the Rocky Mountains, in which region he expects to make his future home.

Men and teams are busy transporting men, supplies and other necessities for the winter work to Wainwright across the river, where arrangements are being made to secure logs for next season's run.

The late firm of O'Hare & Williams, managers of the Windsor Hotel, have dissolved partnership. Mr. Williams retiring. We understand the latter gentleman has sold his interest in the hotel to Mrs. George, a lady lately from Australia, and experienced in the hotel business.

YOUNG MAN CRUSHED UNDER THRESHING ENGINE

Young Man From Lindsay Ont. Meets
Tragic Death Near Regina

Regina, Nov. 2.—A young harvest hand named Westley Jordan, met with a terrible death in the Cottonwood district yesterday. Jordan who comes from Lindsay, Ont., was fireman on a thresher and fell beneath the wheel of the engine and was crushed to death. The body has been brought to Regina to be prepared for burial which will take place at Lindsay.

POWER HOUSE EXPLOSION
Washington, Nov. 2.—An explosion occurred in the Potomac power house this afternoon. Two employees were thrown from the ground floor to the roof. Many employees were injured, several, it is thought, fatally.

AYLESWORTH'S OPPONENT
New Market, Nov. 2.—Wm. McCallum of Kingston Township was nominated by Conservatives to contest North York against Hon. A. B. Aylesworth.

The Campaign

Hon. C. W. Cross held a meeting at Spruce Grove last night. The speakers were John A. McPherson, Liberal candidate, C. W. Weldenhamer, Conservative; D. Brox, Malcolm McKinley and Mr. Cross. The meeting was well attended and enthusiastic and closed with three cheers for McPherson.

The first joint meeting of Russians during the campaign was held last night in the Russian reading room on Kimstino avenue. The hall was crowded to the doors, and there was great enthusiasm. The speakers were Mr. Dawson for Hon. C. W. Cross; W. A. Griesbach, Conservative candidate, and J. C. Brown, for Mr. Griesbach. Those who spoke in Russian were M. Gowda and Paul Rudyk for Mr. Cross and F. Hellwig and M. Seremada for Mr. Griesbach. The meeting broke up with cheers for Mr. Cross and the Liberal party, and with the singing of a Russian national song, which translates in English:

"We'll fight for our rights till the last drop of blood is shed."

TURPIN LAKE MEETING

A large and enthusiastic meeting was held in Turpin Lake school house Saturday, October 28, in the interests of Mr. Boyle's candidature. Messrs. Strong and Boyle addressed the electors.

The speakers dealt straight-forwardly and lucidly with the main issues of the campaign. They showed clearly that if the Liberal administration continued, the railway competition and the vigorous immigration policy of the interior department would not be obstructed by agitation and litigation on the part of the province, but that the good work done of under the control of the Minister of Interior would be allowed to continue peacefully on its prosperous course. On the school question they showed how the people were satisfied with the present system, which did not raise racial or religious questions, and that the enemy, at the close a unanimous vote of confidence was tendered Mr. Boyle and he was given three ringing cheers by the electors for the King and for Mr. McKenzie.

C. N. R. BRIDGE READY

Line Only 30 Miles from the City—
There Will be no Delay at the Crossing—Road should be Completed by the 20th

The C. P. R. steel last night reached a point within ten miles of Fort Saskatchewan, and there is every likelihood that the steel will enter the Fort within a week. With twenty more miles to lay, the steel will probably reach Edmonton about the 20th inst.

The temporary bridge at the Fort is now completed and will be ready by the time the track-laying gang reach the river. The permanent structure will be three-quarters of a mile long, with a track above, and a roadway beneath and will be seventy feet from the water. The portions of the permanent bridge have already been constructed, crossing the flats. The temporary bridge being only across the water.

The bridge and culvert gang were yesterday working on the last bridge east of the Fort and timber is now being hauled to place for the culverts between that point and the city.

A large number of ties are now at Fort Saskatchewan for use on the last link of the new line. These ties were taken out last winter in timber yards north of the city.

While construction is being pushed with all rapidity, frequent delays for lack of material have been experienced. All the steel, bolts, angle irons, etc., for the track have to be hauled over the ever-lengthening road from Winnipeg. To rightly adjust and hurry forward the shipments of these various supplies has been no easy task. Besides this has been the continually increasing traffic for the country tributary to the line, and the annual rush of the grain shipping season. The work has progressed steadily, however, and with a confirmation of this, whether Edmonton will welcome the first C. N. R. locomotive over the main line by the last of the present month at the latest and all probability about ten days earlier.

OLIVER AT MACLEOD

Macleod, Oct. 28.—Hon. Frank Oliver addressed a crowded hall at Macleod last night, at what was probably the largest and most enthusiastic political demonstration ever held in the town. Mr. Oliver discussed the issues of the day in a broad and comprehensive manner, making plain to everybody the striking contrast between the policy of the Conservative party to administer the lands for revenue purposes and that of the Liberals to administer them in furtherance of the settlement and development of the country. The school question was decisively and finally disposed of in this district, and the inconsistency of Mr. Bennett's attack on the school clauses ruthlessly exposed. Mr. W. C. Ives, Dr. DeVobert's opponent in the election, spoke on behalf of the workmen, asking that the railway competition and the vigorous immigration policy of the interior department would not be obstructed by agitation and litigation on the part of the province, but that the good work done of under the control of the Minister of Interior would be allowed to continue peacefully on its prosperous course. On the school question they showed how the people were satisfied with the present system, which did not raise racial or religious questions, and that the enemy, at the close a unanimous vote of confidence was tendered Mr. Boyle and he was given three ringing cheers for the King and for Mr. McKenzie.

C. P. R.'S GREAT FIGHT

TO EATIN ITS MONOPOLY

Gigantic Corporation Waging War for the Election of its Solicitor to Discredit the G. T. P. Project

(Manitoba Free Press, Oct. 28.)

The Great Canadian Pacific Company was only able to borrow on our terms enough money to warrant beginning construction with the energy we have all witnessed. The prairie division and the division connecting the prairies with Lake Superior are fair enough, but if we had even the resources those important divisions will be completed as fast as men, money, and a company secure in the highest credit can build them.

That means that a railway incomparably superior to the Canadian Pacific in grades and construction will be, no doubt, in event intervene connecting the Canadian Pacific with two years for the traffic of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. It means that, within that time, the "How Long, O God?" of Western Canada will have been dispelled in the thankful spirit of relief from the oppressive railway monopoly of twenty years.

Against that consummation every device of one of the ablest combinations of capital and managers that the world ever saw, has been and still is employed.

The Canadian Pacific people long believed that they owned the whole railway business of the West. They considered that apparent ownership to be the greatest of preemptive right. They felt out that it could not be contested on by any local railway.

They starved the local railways one by one, submission. Doubtless they would ultimately have reduced the Canadian Pacific to subjection had its energetic managers not been suddenly reinforced by the directors, daunted partly from Dominion guarantees, and partly from the great enhancement in Western values due to the Liberal Government having resolved to aid the Grand Trunk to break it to the C.P.R. monopoly and to deliver the people of the West.

Against this resolution of the Liberal Government of Canada the C.P.R. used the Conservative party for prolonged Parliamentary opposition. Against this resolution the C. P. R. used every influence at the disposal of its enormous popularity with London financiers, a popularity won by bringing from the people of the West every cent of the railway wealth by letting Western money run down and by pouring the money thus saved by the coffers of the English shareholders.

That policy of starving the Western service could never have been pursued by such energetic men as those in the C.P.R. except for a purpose more important to their controlling financial magnates than was the giving of good railway service. Those magnates foresaw that the Liberal Government at Ottawa would intervene to rescue the West. The magnates said that, by magnificently serving here they could save great sums for a few years, pour the saved sums into London, thus magnify their English influence, and thus perhaps defeat, on the London money market, any attempt to establish a great railway system here.

Such defeat, they could clearly see, would probably destroy not only the rival scheme, but the Laurier Government. Then a C.P.R. Government would obtain power at Ottawa. Then the confirmed and entrenched C.P.R. monopoly grew rapidly, at least in the West, obtain any amount of money in London, proceed with a magnanimous air, to improve the services that it had starved as a mere incident in its farsighted plan and be secure here forever.

In pursuance of this adroit and gigantic scheme the Conservatives were set, in 1903, to dislodge every inch, every clause, and almost every letter of the Liberal Government's agreement with the Grand Trunk Pacific. It is a well known fact among politicians that you were prepared to pursue obstruction to the point of literally killing Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who was in weak health just before the session began. The reason was that he could be killed or driven into retirement, a weak health, a Conservative administration would succeed, and the Grand Trunk Pacific project would collapse.

That cruel calculation was nullified by Sir Wilfrid's emergence from the disease that had long threatened his life. His health improved every day of the session; the Grand Trunk Pacific agreement was made law; and the West breathed with a hope of early relief.

But as the old proverb says: "It is a fool's bolt that is soon shot." The C.P.R. magnates are not fools. The enormous monopoly they had saved in London, it was said, that they had deeply entrenched themselves at Western expense of money and at expense of sufferings innumerable to the Western people.

Could the C.P.R. powers in London fail the Grand Trunk Pacific attempt to organize and to raise money? It seemed they could. Into the very middle of the Grand Trunk general meeting met for the purpose of aiding to organize the G.T.P. Co., a powerful object in the interest of the G. P. R. interest.

The race succeeded temporarily. In order that the G.T.P. Co. might be successful on the London money market, it was seen to be necessary that the G. T. P. charter and agreement should be emanate from Ottawa. That meant another long railway session, another prolonged and obstructed debate, another possible chapter of accidents to the Government of Canada, another chance to get a C. P. R. magnate into power. The C. P. R. magnates took every one of the favorable chances during the session of 1904.

Those able and profound monopolists took all the favorable chances in vain. The Ulysses of Canada was in Premiership. Formidable as the enemy were, Sir Wilfrid was abler still. He stood up to the fight as I— and we use the phrase with deliberation—Heaven had endowed his frail form with specially given strength to save his country.

Again the Grand Trunk Pacific agreement went through unscathed. Again the C.P.R. seemed defeated all along the line.

But the C. P. R. Co. is never utterly routed. Its energy, its energy, its persistence, its energy are equal to its energy. In proportion to the hugeness of the monopoly it still hopes to regain.

There is one thing more than another that speaks well for success in indicating the growing power in the new Province of Alberta, in the manner in which that work has been taken hold of by the able and energetic men who have been called by Premier Rutherford to assist him in carrying out the policy of progress that the C.P.R. helped to implement.

Law and order are the necessary condition of true national or provincial greatness, and the selection of Hon. C. W. Cross to take charge of the Attorney-General's Department in the North-West Territories had given unqualified satisfaction from one Province to the other. Mr. Cross is a young man, but has already made his name for himself in his chosen profession. Formerly the Attorney-General's Department in the North-West Territories had merely to deal with the management of civil justice, which included, of course, the various clerks

TWO MEN DEAD

Winnipeg, Nov. 1.—As a result of drinking wood alcohol Charles Ennis and Peter Hill are now dead the former at the Winnipeg hospital and the latter at St. Boniface hospital. Hill died yesterday morning just after being removed from the ambulance and Ennis' yesterday afternoon. It seems that Sunday they purchased stuff from a city drug store, in lieu of whisky, and in company with another who drank it. All Monday they were under its effects and yesterday their condition assumed such an alarming nature that the two deceased had to be taken to the hospitals. The other rallied and will live. Hill was an Iroquois Indian and for some time was in the employ of the Dominion Bridge Company of Lachine, Que.

B. C. RAILWAY WAR.

Nelson, Oct. 30.—There was an exciting clash of forces on Saturday afternoon west of Midway between C.P.R. and G.N.R. employees. Fifty C.P.R. men appeared on ground owned by the Great Northern railroad and were fended off by twenty-five G.N.R. employees. An angry quarrel ensued but the G.N.R. men, leaving C.P.R. men gradually on the ground claimed as G.N.R. right of way.

TENSION RELAXES.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 3.—The tension is easier in the Muscovite empire. The Emperor has issued an Imperial manifesto in which he states that the present disorders may cause great national disaster and it therefore becomes his duty to avert such calamity. He orders the present Government to abstain from interference with the new Assembly and in no way to resist its decisions to secure reform of the railroads of the empire on an electoral principle, confirmation of civil liberty and repression of excessive laws and repressive measures. Witte will be the head of the new Government. There is great rejoicing at the manifesto.

THE MANIFESTO WAS LATE.

Tsar, Nov. 2.—The city hall here was besieged and burned yesterday and the hospital is filled with wounded. The situation in Russia is worse than before the issue of the Imperial manifesto. All over the Empire mobs are releasing prisoners and every town sends in its tale of murder, pillage, sack and civil war, with murderous conflicts between the revolutionaries and the people. The general opinion is that the manifesto came too late.

Rostov, Nov. 2.—Many persons were killed and wounded and the Jewish quarter sacked and burned here yesterday.

Odessa, Nov. 2.—Firing took place on the outskirts of the town all day, yesterday resulting in the killing and wounding of hundreds of persons.

Warsaw, Nov. 2.—Twenty were killed and a hundred wounded in encounters between mobs and troops last night.

Elbe-herad, Nov. 2.—Many Jews were beaten, wounded and killed yesterday here.

TAFFIE REVISION.

Ottawa, Nov. 2.—There is a strong probability that there will be no tariff revision at the coming session of Parliament. It will likely be put off until the following session as the discussion would probably go so long as to prevent the House meeting in November next year as arranged for. No decision has yet been reached by the Government, although Liberal members are pressing against going on with the revision during the approaching session. The only ones who will be dissatisfied are those manufacturers who are clamouring for higher duties.

WINNIPEG MARKETS.

Wheat—Manitoba—what on the Winnipeg grain market for the fall has not been a hold-up and the regular market (based a large trade was done on the curb and prices are up for the week. Movement from country points is large and only limited for the car supply, and there is a free market. The market is well supplied with the exception of the following year's crop. The only ones who are for in the market are those manufacturers who are clamouring for higher duties.

Successful Students.

The principle and the head of the musical department of Alberta College wish to make the following correction in the lists read at the formal opening of the college on Friday night last.

From the list of those who had passed successfully the sessional examination and were deserving of honorable mention, the names of Misses Crafts and Miss Florence McCrimmon were unintentionally omitted.

The complete list in this department now stands—Miss A. Annison, Miss A. Crafts, Miss M. Doze, Miss Entwistle, Miss D. Huestis, the Misses Harroche, Miss J. Potter, and C. M. Willis.

at the court throughout the country, and the liquor license department. There has been added to this since the Autonomy Bills passed, the control and management of all criminal business which to many had been attended to by the Minister of Justice at Ottawa. Besides this at the first new parliament: the new legislation will take over the control of the registry offices and land titles registration offices throughout this country.

The Department of Public Works is under control of a man eminent in that line of work. Mr. Cushing has large and successful business interests in different parts of the West, and it was a cause of congratulation to all that he was chosen to have his great business ability and undoubted talents for administering large concerns, to the service of the Province. In his department he has control of all public buildings, and the maintenance of the same; the construction and maintenance of all bridges outside of those put in by the local improvement districts; the constructing of main trails and roads; the subject of draining and ditching; the operation of steam dredges in the wet and swampy portions of the country; the organization of local improvement districts, and all of the preliminaries in connection with the same; the collection of all arrears of taxes in all organized districts, and the collection of all school taxes in school districts; the survey of trails, road deviations and all engineering and survey work in connection therewith; the expropriation of land and the leasing of road allowances; the installation, operation and maintenance of ferries; the administration of the steam boiler ordinance; the administration of the coalmining ordinance; the supervision of the district surveyors and engineers; the maintenance of fire guards in unorganized districts; and a large volume of matter of minor importance. From this it will be seen that the head of the Department should be possessed of great organization power, and with the ability and resolution to select and to find suitable assistants to further the business interests of the Province in this very important Department. Such a man has been found in Mr. Cushing who, already, has secured several of the best officers that could be obtained to serve the public with their services and best energies to the work of creating and maintaining the Public Works Department of Alberta. This year he will be able to devote over $500,000 to the use of the Department for maintaining and further developing the various works which are outlined above.

The Agricultural Department is safe in the hands of Mr. W. T. Finlay, a practical man, who has seen the great development from the un-tillied prairie to the large production of millions of bushels of golden grain, who has observed the non-producing waste become the granary of the world. Already he has taken hold of the work of his Department with a will, and, with able assistants, has set about modelling it after the most modern systems that prevail, not only in the more progressive Provinces of the Dominion, but in the most progressive of the Western States, whose climatic and other conditions more nearly approach our own. Alberta is essentially an agricultural Province at the present time, and with her vast area and progressive people her progressive character is bound to increase and multiply. Already the eyes of the world have been turned towards the Canadian West, and thousands upon thousands have come hither to take upon themselves the duties of citizenship and to grow with our grain, and to strengthen with our strength. To all such we are willing to offer a hearty welcome, and a firm assurance that honesty, integrity and industry can bring forth no better results anywhere than they can in our fair Province of Alberta.

To quote from a poem recently printed in the Toronto, Ontario, Star:

"There's a stir in the air, there's a thrill through the land,
There's a movement toward the great west;
And the eyes of all men for the moment are turned
To the country that we love the best;
For 'tis Canada's day in the world's calendar.
And to this merry toast let us sup;
'Here's to the land, the young giant of the North,
Where the prairies are opening up;
They come from the east and they come from the south,
They come o'er the deep, rolling sea;
They come for they know they will dwell 'neath a flag
That makes all men equal and free;
Then once more the toast, and let every man rise;
And cheer ere he slips from the cup;
'Here's to the land, the young giant of the North,
Where the prairies are opening up."

The next of the great fights of the magnates, was in the election of the November. C. P. R. money was everywhere, and C. P. R. servants posing as merely Conservative supporters everywhere at once. "Now, at last, Laurier must go under!" was their hope. They would carry on a battle so various and so multifiduous that he could not meet them at every point of the field.

But they did not know their Laurier. He was in the forefront of the fray; he was, every time, wherever he was needed. Once more he rolled the C. P. R. magnates down, neck and crop, with their wagons, horses, donkeys and renegade members.

The 3rd of November saw the C. P. R. party routed irretrievably, it seemed. The West vented great shouts of rejoicing. All Canada shared in the sense of jubilation. Business was free from a long nightmare. Stocks rose. Every factory and every

PUBLIC MEETING TONIGHT.—The supporters of Hon. C. W. Cross meet in the Young Liberal Club rooms tonight. All supporters are requested to attend. Speeches will be delivered on the issues of the day and a musical program will be rendered.

POLITICAL POINTERS

Hon. C. W. Cross does not have to advertise the fact that he is in the "Fight to the Finish."

The Calgary Herald has the easiest and breeziest way of making out a case that it is possible to conceive of. It simply lies about a public man, and says brazenly, "Furnish the proof that what we've said isn't so."

What a deep reverence the Calgary Herald has for a dead Liberal. It is about as deep and reverential as General Cook had when he said "the only good Indian is a dead one"! Alexander MacKenzie, George Brown, David Mills and every other Liberal of note was abused by the Tories in his day and generation, and now the Tory speakers and the Tory press are nauseating their memory with "epitaphs."

Mr. Charles A. Stewart is another man whom the Herald rib-stabs after with a keen edged knife, which makes us believe that "Charlie" is the man for Gleichen.

Mr. Richard B. Bennett, the leader of the party in discord in Alberta had a monkey and a parrot time in Calgary at the Labor meeting. Like the parrot in the story he got badly mussed up and can now say with his prototype "I talk too much".

Hon. Mr. Cushing, Minister of Public Works, gave the lie direct to Mr. Bennett's cowardly insinuation that road monies were being misspiled for campaign purposes, and Messrs. Simpson and Puffer threw the lying statement back in Bennett's teeth as quickly as the mails would carry it. This, however, does not hinder the Conservative press from repeating Bennett's falsehood.

That cry about railway competition will not down, and poor Mr. Bennett is having the time of his life trying to escape the importunities of his friends from the Eye Opener to the man on the boundary. He is so worried he does not know what to do and is in the unfortunate condition of another worried individual, who wrote:

I can and I can't,
I will and I won't,
I shall and I shan't,
I do and I don't,
I'll be d— if I do,
and I'll be d— if I don't.

STRATHCONA NEWS

Strathcona, Nov. 1.—Owing to increasing business the Edmonton Milling Co. find they have not sufficient warehouse space. Work men are now busily engaged erecting a commodious and convenient warehouse, where the manufactured goods can be stored ready for market. The building is 160 x 60 and will materially assist in reducing the congestion at the mill, particularly when there is a steady business going on day and night. We understand that the trade of the Brackman-Ker Milling Co. will be extended up to the new warehouse.

Mr. Williamson a noted lumberman from Vermont has gone to fix up Mr. Stewart's steam outfit for the winter's work.

Mr. Sheriff of Cooking Lake was in town yesterday visiting his old friend and neighbor Mr. J. J. Osborne, who is suffering with a paroxysm of fits. Mr. Sheriff is well pleased with his friend.

Nominations passed off quietly here.

The Hon. A. C. Rutherford and Dr. Ross were nominated for the first Provincial election in Alberta in the Liberal and Conservative interests, respectively.

Rob. Sheriff of Cooking Lake is a guest at the Royal. He reports a large number of Americans settling in his district.

Many of the boys celebrated Hallowe'en last night. No serious results have been reported.

SHERIFF'S SALE

Northwest Territories, to wit: By virtue of a Writ of Execution issued out of the Supreme Court of the Northwest Territories, Northern Alberta Judicial District, at the suit of The Imperial Bank of Canada, Plaintiff, and Charlotte Twyford and Hugh A. W. Twyford, Defendants, and to me directed against the Lands of Charlotte Twyford and Hugh A. W. Twyford, I have seized and taken into Execution the following Lands, namely:
